

LITERARY LUNCH FOR MIDDLE SCHOOLERS

EMMAUS PUBLIC LIBRARY

WINTER, 2012

NOON – 1:15 PM

The first 15 registrants for each discussion receive a free copy of the book at the front desk. Read the book. Bring it and your lunch to the library on the discussion date at noon. Join us for a discussion, lemonade and dessert in the Gardiner Room. Register for as many discussions as you like. Others may join us if they can find copies of the book.

Sat., January 21 – The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes by Arthur Conan Doyle. Ten of the greatest of the Holmes mysteries. Hope your sense of adventure is in high gear! See where it all started.

Sat., February 25 – Hatchet by Gary Paulsen. For those who like survival stories or those who have never read one, this is a classic, written more than 20 years ago. What if you have to crash a plane and find a way to live until someone finds you?

Saturday, March 26 – Magyk by Angie Sage. If you like fantasy, this may be your cup of tea. It was first recommended to me by one of you. And it was a good suggestion. See what you think. It is #1 of a series.
