

MEET JOSH BERK AND WILL "HAMBURGER" HALPIN

EMMAUS PUBLIC LIBRARY

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24

7 PM

Imagine being deaf, imagine being chunky, imagine being mainstreamed for the first time into high school in coal country in PA. You've just met Will Halpin. What if someone murdered the high school quarterback? Would you be more popular if you solved the crime? It's funny, it's a mystery and it's Young Adult.

Imagine being a librarian, imagine writing a book, imagine getting it published by Alfred Knopf, imagine visiting the Emmaus Public Library to talk about it!

Josh Berk will tell us how he was inspired to write a book and how he got it published. He will also autograph his books at this event. There will be copies for sale.

Please register for this event at the front desk or by telephoning 610-965-9284 during regular library hours.

Please remember that the Emmaus Public Library is now closed on Fridays.
